DOLLAR REWARD SOAP

Washes without rubbing; Removes Pitch, Tar, Paint, Grease, Sweat and Leather Stains, &c.; Washes with Hot or Cold, Hard, Soft, or Salt Water; Saves Labor, Time, Fuel, Clothes, and Money; Clothes washed with it wear twice as long as if washed with common soap. One pound of it will wash from ten to fifteen dozen pieces of ordinary linen in washing. It washes the finest lace without injury, and renders all articles as clear and bright as new.

THE DOLLAR REWARD SOAP,

Try it in the Bathroom; it leaves the skin cool, smooth and soft. Use it to cleanse your Marble Ornaments, Mantles, Door-steps, &c., and Brick Walks and Alleys. Use it with scouring-brick in cleansing iron or steel; it saves half the labor, and gives a better appearance. It makes Tin Ware shine like new, and has no equal in cleansing glass or china. Dissolved in boiling water, it makes the best and cheapest Soft Soap in the world.

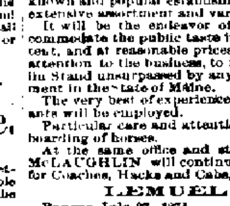
LIVERY STABLE.



The undersigned, having retired from the Stage and Livery business at Dexter, has resumed the Livery business among his old customers and acquaintances at Bangor. With the exception of the hack and coach business.

The entire Stock and Stand of Henry F. McLaughlin, on Central Bridge, has been purchased by the undersigned.

To the equipments already belonging to this well known and popular establishment has been added an extensive assortment and variety of teams.

It will be the endeavor of the proprietor to accommodate the public taste in every variety and extent, and at reasonable prices; and by his undivided attention to the business, to make the old McLaughlin Stand unsurpassed by any other livery establishment in the State of Maine.

The very best of experienced and courteous attendants will be employed.

Particular care and attention will be given to the boarding of horses.

At the same office and stand, Mr. HENRY F. McLAUGHLIN will continue all sorts of business for Coaches, Hacks and Cabs, as heretofore.

MANHOOD

YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON—WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES—SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER, FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this same result occurred to two patients. Reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute; neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

"With woful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for 6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.

HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties, with no dangerous ingredient. A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Is more easily applied than many other remedies, never producing a bad effect, but always relieving pain, however severe.

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for nearly twenty years, with great success.

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are, Chilblains, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Old Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Sprains, Burns, Fever Sores, Felons, Pimples, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch, Deafness, Boils, Ring-worms, Corns, Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache, Earache, Sore Nipples, Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch, Scald Head, Teething, Chapped Hands, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children.

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied. Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy. Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications. For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately. Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve, and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable. It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors. Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples. No way injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently, once or twice a day. Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief. For Old Sores, apply once a day.

FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.—For Sores or Bruises on Horses or Cattle this Salve is invaluable, and has astonishing effect in curing scratches on horses. This Salve has worked its own way into notoriety, and is a safe and sure remedy for all the above ailments.

We, the undersigned, have been acquainted with Miss Sawyer for many years, and believe her to be a Christian lady and a skillful nurse, and having used her salve in our families, it gives us great pleasure in saying it is the best general medicine we have ever used:

Rev. E. F. Cutter, Rev. W. O. Holman, Rev. Joseph Kalloch, Rev. George Pratt, Gen. J. P. Cilley and wife, Capt. J. Crocker and wife, Capt. David Ames and wife, Wm. Wilson and wife, E. R. Spear, A. S. Rice, Geo. W. Kimball, Jr. (Mayor of Rockland) and wife, Joseph Farwel, C. R. Mallard, Ephraim Barrett, Leander Weeks, Hon. N. A. Burpee, Francis Cobb, John T. Berry, Wm. H. Titcomb, Mrs. Charles Snow, Mrs. Alex. Snow, Dr. E. P. Chase and wife, J. Wakefield and wife, Wm. Beattie and wife, Jacob Shaw and wife, John S. Case and wife, H. W. Wight and wife, W. O. Fuller and wife, Thomas Colson and wife, Dea. Henry Ingraham and wife, O. J. Conant (Postmaster of Rockland) and wife, I. K. Kimball and wife, William McLoon.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

If your Druggist is out of the Salve, and neglects to keep supplied, send seventy-five cents as directed below, and receive a box by return mail.

Put up in Boxes at 50 cents each. Prepared by MISS C. SAWYER, and put up by L. M. ROBBINS, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, Rockland, Me. A Trial Box sent free by mail on receipt of seventy-five cents, by L. M. ROBBINS, Rockland, Me.

THIS VALUABLE SALVE IS SOLD BY ALL DEALERS IN MEDICINES.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS
For Inventions, Trade Marks, Designs,
No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

ANOTHER DEPARTURE.

The latest Democratic expedient for escaping the consequences of a party record which has become hateful to the people of the country, has originated with the St. Louis Republican, an influential Democratic paper in the West, and has created quite a stir among the organs of that section. The proposition is substantially, that as a Democratic candidate for the Presidency is sure to be overwhelmingly defeated, the party shall make no nomination, but encourage opposition to General Grant in every possible way and then support a bolting Republican candidate with the hope of a fusion victory. This project exhibits President Grant as the principal object of Democratic assault, and the fact that his prestige has led to the proposal to haul down the Democratic colors during the coming campaign, will give him additional strength with the people. The proposition has found some favor and has been seriously discussed, although the more uncompromising organs of the party regard it as an unconditional surrender. The Cincinnati Enquirer, Chicago Times and other papers reject the proposal for a fusion, the latter styling it "A Crazy Departure" and saying of the coalition of Democrats and bolting Republicans, that as the former would probably furnish ninety-nine per cent. of the fusion vote, "they will prefer to furnish at least one per cent. of the candidates to be voted for." On the other hand the Republican cites the success of fusion in Missouri and "Conservatism" in Virginia, and argues as follows in favor of combining all the elements of opposition to defeat the Republican administration:

Let us suppose that this proposition be submitted to a regularly called National Democratic Convention, called in 1872—and no less august body ought to assume to decide it. If that body should reject it, and resolve to contest the Presidency with a Democratic ticket, that would end the discussion. We would acquiesce in the decision, and support the ticket with what strength we might be able to bring to the task—not, however, without the conviction that it would be the last Democratic Presidential ticket that would ever be put in the field. If, on the contrary, the Convention should decide not to contest the Presidency, but leave that work to whomsoever might make opposition to Gen. Grant, it should solemnly and in perfect good faith announce the fact, elect the usual National Executive Committee and adjourn. The coherency which Democratic opposition gives to the Republican party, would be immediately destroyed, and the powerful element of opposition to Grant in that party would take form as the aggressive party of the hour and leader in the contest, supplemented and re-enforced where it is weak by a compact and irresistible reserve of Democrats. If the Republican opposition to Grant and the popular discontent with the policy of martial law, high tariff, personal government, and civil service corruption is as great as all fair signs seem to indicate, there would be no doubt about the issue of such a contest. A Liberal Republican, whoever he might be, would be chosen President by a majority so overwhelming that it would not be safe to defy it; a majority of Democrats and Liberals, united by the memory of a common struggle and a common triumph, would be elected to Congress; the policy of martial law would be overthrown forever, and we would have a return of the Monroe "era of good feeling." The withdrawal of the Democracy from the Presidential canvass would not affect its conduct in other contests, for the Democracy is not a central party to be destroyed by the momentary inaction of its National Central Committee. The party in each State, Congress District, city, town and county would conduct their local contests as now, but with increased influence and spirit which their abstinence from the Presidential field necessarily would give, and whether, after the battle was over, the result should be a Democratic victory or a Liberal Republican victory, there would be no question of its being an Administration party defeat, and that fact would more than content the victorious allies.

The anticipation of such an "era of good feeling" between factious Republicans and a party which cannot go before the people without arousing the conviction that it would present "the last Democratic Presidential ticket that would ever be put in the field," is certainly not flattering to the alleged malcontents of the Republican party.

The Belfast Journal is again vexed in spirit by "the hand-writing on the wall." It complains that the teachers permit their urchins to purloin the chalk crayons designed for black board use, and it seems that the artistic instincts of the Belfast gamin find their favorite expression in supplementing the suggestive paragraphs of the sanctum by their crude but apposite illustrations upon the office hall way. The Journal says:

As a rule, every boy has crayons in his pocket, and uses them on very slight provocation. Last week we detected three boys at this business in our office entry, and gave them the choice between cleaning the wall or going before the Police Court. They did a good deal of penitential scrubbing in the next two [illegible].

Readers of the literary tid-bits to which we have referred, will recognize something more than "slight provocation," and while the police tolerate the latter press they should have mercy on the artists. The amount of "penitential scrubbing" required to efface the lessons taught these misguided youths, could hardly be measured by our present standard of time, as the most extravagant use of lye would avail nothing in such a task.

SOUTH CAROLINA FINANCES. The N. Y. World of Sunday, stated that the American Bank Note Company have printed bonds of the State of South Carolina amounting to $20,000,000, which have passed into the hands of Kempton, the State Financial Agent, and have been negotiated and misapplied. The World gives several versions of the story, but claims high authority for charging the perpetration of frauds which are likely to render the State insolvent. On the other hand, Governor Scott, Treasurer Parker, and the Chairman of the Committee on State Accounts, publish a joint card on Monday, stating that the amount of bonds have been printed under acts of the Legislature for the conversion of State securities, but that $9,000,000 were never signed or issued, nor were they intended to increase the State debt. They declare statements published against the credit of the State to be gross fabrications.

The World on Monday asserts that $30,000,000 instead of $20,000,000 bonds were issued, that $15,000,000 were shipped to Europe for sale and the balance put on the market in New York, and that the same programme is being carried out in North Carolina. The truth or falsity of these statements will doubtless appear in a few days, and the fact of their appearance in the World on the eve of important elections, will cause them to be received with suspicion. If the charges are based on facts, they cannot be long concealed.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS IN NEW YORK. Mary A. Leland wrote as follows to the New York Sun on Friday:

"Learning this morning that Victoria C. Woodhull and Tennie C. Claflin had registered to vote at the coming election, I at once proceeded to the registration office of my district, the 19th. of the Sixteenth Ward, from which I have just returned, having registered, and without opposition. The officers simply referred to the Constitution of the United States, under which I claimed the right to vote, and finding no restrictions as to sex, they permitted my registration.

"The members of the board were as courteous, polite and gentlemanly as those I am accustomed to meet in my parlor, and though I had been assured that obstacles in the shape of vulgarity would deter women from approaching the polls, I am glad to find the same respect shown to women by men in the church, theatre, railway train, or even street cars, is extended to them in the halls of registration, and will, I firmly believe, welcome her at the polls on election day."

A WHALING FLEET DESTROYED BY ICE. The Steamer Moses Taylor, at San Francisco from Honolulu, reports a terrible disaster to the Arctic whaling fleet by which thirty-three vessels were caught in the ice and crushed or abandoned. Whalers arrived at Honolulu furnished the following details: The ice opened about the first of June and the fleet worked northward finding some whales, but having much trouble with ice. Reaching Flower Bay, the whales had passed through into the Arctic Ocean, whither the fleet followed, meeting with fair success until the first of September, when ice floes and bergs began drifting down, and by the 10th a number of vessels had been sunk and most of the remainder were driven ashore. The brig Comet, the Roman, and the Florida and Victoria of San Francisco were crushed like eggshells, the crews barely escaping. Sept. 15th, the Captains of the fleet hemmed in between Point Belcher and Wainwright inlet, held a meeting and resolved to abandon the vessels to save life, and the 1200 sailors took refuge on the few vessels which had got clear.

The vessels abandoned are the Concordia, Gayhead, George, John Wells, Massachusetts, J. D. Thomson, Contest, G. Morgan, Champion, Henry Tabor, E. Swift, C. Crocker, Navy, Reindeer, Fanny, George Howland, Pacia, Eugenia, Kaboola, and T. Dickinson. It is supposed that the whole number lost will reach thirty-three.

The vessels known to be safe are as follows: Arctic, Progress, Chance, Daniel Webster, Lagoda, Europa and Medee. All the abandoned vessels it is believed will be a total loss, there being little chance of recovering even the cargoes in the Spring.

The news created the greatest excitement at Honolulu and San Francisco. Nearly all the officers and many of the men came to San Francisco on the steamer. The bark Comet will bring what she can and the Consul at Honolulu is negotiating for a vessel to take the rest of the party.

No deaths are reported in the fleet. The loss is estimated at half a million exclusive of cargoes.

THE TESTIMONIAL TO MINISTER WASHBURNE. Advices from Paris represent the offering of a testimonial to Minister Washburne on Thursday as a very agreeable affair. A large number of Americans waited upon the Minister and presented the silver ware, consisting of an elegant dinner and tea service of fine silver, the product of American mines and of American manufacture. An appropriate address, reciting that the tokens were offered as an earnest of the donors' respect, gratitude and admiration for the Minister's distinguished public services, and his kindness to all Americans, who remained in Paris during the seige, accompanied the gifts. Mr. Washburne, in accepting the testimonial, replied to the address in a few graceful remarks, in which he took occasion to acknowledge and praise the zealous cooperation of Col. Hoffman, the Secretary of Legation, and other members of the diplomatic household.

THE UNFORTUNATE INSURANCE COMPANIES. Hartford, built and fostered by insurance, will have much cause to regret the Chicago conflagration for many years to come. The losses of the "Merchants'" amount to more than $1,000,000, and as the assets are only about $540,000, insolvency is, of course, necessary. When the items of re-insurance are taken into account, it will be found that it can afford but a small per centage in settlement of its liabilities. The Hartford Evening Post says that "the officers of this splendid company were rightly ranked with the most accomplished and prudent of underwriters in the best of schools, Hartford." The President intends to form a new company. The North American, of Hartford, also lost $825,000 at Chicago, exclusive of re-insurance, while its assets were only $454,000. This company has paid to the public, for fire losses since 1857, $2,076,000, and in dividends to policy holders $390,000. The "Putnam" loses $800,000, and has only $680,000 as assets. The "Charter Oak" is not likely to pay over thirty cents on the dollar. Its losses exceed $350,000; its assets were, prior to the fire, $252,050. The "Connecticut" is disorganized by its losses of $600,000, but showed assets of $433,000, and will make a new company out of the old personal constituents.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA KU-KLUX. The South Carolina papers report that the excitement in Spartansburg has somewhat subsided. There were no arrests there last week, and no arrests in Chester County. Twenty-one have been arrested in York County, where 200 persons confessed connection with the Ku-Klux organization, though they mainly allege that they never participated in its operations. Some say that they were compelled to join, while others did it as a means of protection to their negro laborers. The confessions give the names of those who performed the initiation and others present some knowledge of the commission of outrages, including murders. Of the recent arrests, four negroes and six whites have been released and there yet remain 88 in jail, including two negroes.

A special to the Tribune from Columbia, S. C., 5th inst., says the crusade against the Ku Klux is still actively prosecuted in the interior. All arrests thus far have been in the counties of York and Spartansburg, except five in Union County, of men charged with complicity in the murder of eight negroes taken from jail in Union village in Feburary by disguised men and shot. One is a Judge of Probate, one a hotel-keeper, two are merchants, one is a mulatto and one a shoe-maker. These prisoners deny all knowledge of Ku-Klux and are reticent. They have a hearing Saturday before the U. S. Commissioner, it having been postponed a week at their request. The Ku-Klux trials begin on the 27th, before Judge Bond.

LOWERING THE BRITISH FLAG AT QUEBEC. Our special dispatches state that the British flag is to be lowered from the citadel of Quebec on the 5th of November, and the "Gibraltar of America" will then be handed over to the care of the Dominion of Canada. There have been periods in the history of Canada when such an announcement would have excited alarm. At present it does not do so, for several reasons. The relations between Canada and the Mother Country never were more cordial than they now are, the relations between England and the United States are good, and the national spirit of Canada, the best guarantee for the freedom of the people, is rising higher every day. The mention of the Old Flag will ever evoke thrilling historic traditions; England inherits such traditions; Canada must create them for herself! under the friendly eye of the Mother Land.—St. John Telegraph.

FATAL RECKLESSNESS. A party of men living near Inwood, Ind., were out coon hunting Saturday night, and while returning home three sat down on a railroad track to await the arrival of the rest and fell asleep. The express train came along and struck John Greas and flung him 60 feet, killing him instantly; Bruce Robinson was badly injured and the other man escaped.

A SPUNKY ELDER. A Concord dispatch states that Elder Spencer of Northfield, N. H., had a fierce encounter with a man who forced his way into his house on Saturday night. "After being knocked down and well pounded, the man left with a broken arm, without injuring the Elder or taking anything."

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE. During the panic on Sunday evening at the African Baptist church in Louisville, Ky., which was caused by the giving way of a column, nine women and two children were trampled to death.

Monday morning ice formed an inch thick at Portsmouth, N. H.

The Martyrs of Neglect.
It is not too much to say that tens of thousands are now suffering from biliousness, indigestion, constipation, periodical fevers, general debility, and nervous affections, who might be restored to perfect health within a month or less by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The multitudes who have been cured of these and other ailments by the use of this well known specific are always ready to testify to its virtue as a preventive and a remedy. They are spread over the whole country; they are eager to praise and recommend it; and yet, notwithstanding its vast popularity, there are many invalids, and many who are continually exposed to the epidemical diseases, against which it is a sure protection, who, either through indifference or incredulity, neglect to seize the opportunity to cure and means of prevention, which they have only to reach out their hands to obtain. This is strange; it is one of the anomalies of human nature which it is impossible to account for or explain. It is, however, quite certain that every day the number of these Martyrs of Neglect is diminishing. This is proved by the statistics of the sales of the great remedy. During the present fall the demand for it has increased beyond all precedent, and it seems as if in the end the entire community would realize the important fact, that when all other medicines prescribed for the above complaints fail, it can and does effect a cure. As a protection against the diseases most common at this season, there is nothing comparable with it.

Rare Chance.
A Valuable House for Sale,
The owner, having removed from the city, wishes to sell this house, situated on West Broadway. It is a large new, two-story house with a French roof, and is furnished throughout in the best manner and with all the modern improvements. It is situated on one of the pleasantest street in the city, and all of the surroundings are as good as could be found anywhere. The lot contains about seven eighths of an acre (102 feet on the street, and about 350 feet back) and is all under a high state of cultivation. The soil is very nice and light. There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice flower garden beside the house. It is seldom that such a chance is offered to persons wishing to buy a nice house.
It must be sold immediately. For particulars inquire at No. 4, Broad Street, Bangor.

BETTER AND CHEAPER THAN ANY OTHER
BOOTS OR SHOES;
THOSE FASTENED WITH
CABLE SCREW WIRE.
BETTER—Because they are more Pliable, more Comfortable, are Water-proof and are warranted not to Rip or Gape.
CHEAPER—Because, while their first cost is not in excess of sewed or pegged work of a like grade, their Durability is far greater, they preserve their Shape much better, and the metallic fastening insures a more Equal Wear. Equally applicable to light and heavy work.
The immense demand having called forth imitations, consumers should be sure that every boot or shoe bears the Patent Stamp.

The Cause and Cure of Consumption.
The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These Pills cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid, and the appetite is poor, in the bowels, the lacteals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Seaweed Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure is a new order of things, a good appetite, a good nutrition, the body to grow in flesh and get fat; then Nature is helped, the cavities will heal, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the true and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, if there is enough vitality left in the other to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age. This is what Schenck's medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion, and give nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

It is important that, while using Schenck's medicines, care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in-doors in cool and damp weather; avoid night air, and take out-door exercise only in a genial and warm sunshine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed consumptives' lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the biting blasts of winter or the chilling winds of spring or autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the first of October I expect to take possession of my new building at the north-east corner of Sixth and Arch streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.

Full directions accompany all my remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

WASHINGTON [...] Insurance Company vs Norwich and New [York] Transportation Company [...] Circuit Court for Connecticut The City of Norwich, steamboat, insured by the plaintiff in error, collided with a schooner [...] manner as to cause her to take fire from the furnace and the light freight being consumed she sank The Insurance Company resisted on the ground that the loss was occasioned by the collision and not fire The Court below instructed the jury that if upon the evidence they found that the boat would have continued to float so she could have been towed to a place of safety had the fire not occurred the verdict must be for the plaintiff The jury so found and the verdict was according The correctness of the question was the main ruling here where it was sustained and the judgment affirmed

United States vs Burns In this case the Court of Claims gave the plaintiff judgment for use by the Government of the Sibley tent, he plaintiff being by assignment part owner of a contract made with the Government by Major Sibley The department had refused to pay on grounds that payment was a violation of army regulations. This Court [...] the opinion from the facts found below that the Sibley contract is not within the prohibition of the army regulations as pleaded The judgment is therefore affirmed Several other [...] were given but present no points of special interest

CHICAGO
THE MANHATTAN CO

CHICAGO, 6 A petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the U S Court of this city asking that the Manhattan Insurance Co of New York may be declared bankrupt and an assignee be appointed to take charge of the assets for the benefit of the creditors This is done to test the question whether a foreign corporation doing business in this State is amenable to the Bankrupt Court of the State.

Deep interest is manifested in result of the election to morrow The Board of Trade hold a session as the Mayor has issued a proclamation recommending the closing of all places of business

The shelter Committee of the Aid Society report 5 889 applications for temporary houses of which 4,178 were granted

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, GA., 6. Both branches of the Legislature have adopted the following:—

Resolved, That Rufus B Bullock, late Governor of Georgia, who resigned his office and left the State under circumstances creating grave suspicion that he was guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, has, in charging a letter bearing date the 23d of October, 1871 and addressed to his particular friends and the people of Georgia that a majority of the House of Representatives had pledged themselves to vote for articles of impeachment against him without investigation, and that the Senate had determined to convict a sufficient number of Republican Senators to secure his conviction, without regard to truth and validity of the charges defamed, this General Assembly by charges which were untrue, and that the statement in the same letter to the effect that the people of Georgia, have recently denounced or ignored the constitution of the United States is false, and defamatory of the people of this State. On the contrary, we assert that the people of this State do now as they did six months ago, when according to the latter of Bullock's they were peaceably disposed to acquiesce in the results of the war and neither entertain any hostility towards the United States, nor deny any person within the limits of the State equal protection of the laws

BOSTON
THE WHALING DISASTER

BOSTON, Nov 6 News of the disaster to the whaling fleet caused an advance in whale oil in this market, from 60 cents to $1 per gallon with no disposition of holders to sell—Boston insurance offices had little if any risk in property lost. New Bedford offices lose one million, which they can pay and have surplus left.

A YOUNG ROBBER.

THE MILITARY IN CHICAGO
ANOTHER VERSION

ST LOUIS, Nov 6 A special from Springfield Ill, states that the defence of General Sheridan's military measures in Chicago, seems to rest on the plea of necessity. It is not generally known that the Adjutant Gen'l of the State, an experienced soldier, reached Chicago the day after the fire with 450 picked men, under orders from Governor Palmer, to enforce the laws and preserve order, and that under the advice and direction of Gen. Sheridan and Mayor Mason he returned home with the men because there was no necessity for them After this the regiment of which Gov Palmer complains, was organized and called into service

SOME SENSE The Golden Age says that Wendell Phillips is nothing if not sensational, and it comments very sensibly upon his late crazy speeches

"It was at the prohibitory ratification meeting that he said We are living in an hour when it is a confessed fact that republicanism is a failure I am not afraid of despotism, with the church on one side and fashion on the other I am not afraid of corporations The fear lies deeper than that. If you do not recognize the labor movement and the righteousness of this cause, the people will rise and level the city to the ground, as was done in Paris Of course the audience applauded They had come to hear something startling, and that was the thunder clap But a greater untruth, or a worse charge against the friends of labor and laborers could hardly have been uttered in the same number of words. The laborers of Boston are not going to raze that city to the ground because the people of it do not see fit to fall in with their policy and gratify their whims They are Americans, and that is not the American nor the Anglo-Saxon way of doing things If the laborers do not get what they demand to-day they will want until they do get it, if they do not get all they want they will take all they can get. This is what America has educated them to, and they will not belie their training and history Mr Phillips contends for prohibition He wants to make the Republican party a Prohibitory party which shall take the rumseller, wholesale and retail, and strangle him in the face of the people What sort of Republicanism would that be? Mr Phillips is a Republican by conviction, but an autocrat by constitution, and is always in a fever because he cannot promote universal ends by absolutist methods, and depolize in behalf of the Democracy he has taken under his eloquent patronage but to which he does not belong."

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—J. Frost is exhibiting his handiwork to a large audience.

—[...] ran down the river in considerable quantities yesterday.

—An appropriate celebration of the Knox and Lincoln Railroad is getting talked up.

— A large supply of potatoes was hauled to this market yesterday, but many were touched by frost, and prices rule low

—James Taylor, the London commedian, and company, will give an entertainment in Norombega Hall to-morrow evening

—The dust in the streets has not blown so plentifully and disagreeably this season as it did yesterday

—Myers & Huntley's Theatre Company, with Miss Fanny Herring as "star," opens in Norombega Hall next Monday

—A lady who resides on Ohio-st. picked a green strawberry in her garden last week It has not been very good strawberry weather for a few days past, however —The Upper Stillwater Cornet Band will give a concert and dance in Sacramento Hall Thursday evening next, on which occasion they will be assisted by Mann's Minstrels.

—We understand that the Universalist Society of West Newton, Mass, have decided to extend a call to the Rev Amory Battles of this city It will take a loud call to separate the pastor and society of this city

—One shaft of a porter wagon dropped out as it was rattling down Hammond street hill after a smart horse yesterday, and the driver had lively work in hauling up his team to save further damage

—Schooner Edwin A Stevens, Capt Harding, bound from this port to Roslin, L. I., sprung aleak about 10 miles outside of Monhegan, in a heavy sea, and filled in a few minutes She was towed back to Bucksport and is going on the railway for repairs.

FIRE IN DEXTER. We learn that on Sunday night the stable of Dr Clough (firm of Clough & Sawyer) in Dexter was entirely consumed by fire, together with a large quantity of hay and grain, eight head of cattle and two horses.

—The Hersey Light Infantry of Oldtown propose to give an exhibition drill, levee, and military ball Thanksgiving evening and will doubtless have a good time. The company is making great progress in drill and promises to be among the best in the State.

—The cold weather made things lively in the market squares yesterday as neither people nor horses were inclined to stand still. One runaway horse created considerable excitement, and his owner in endeavoring to stop the unruly beast hung out an immense quantity of voice.

—Gen Hall and Mrs Livermore had another female suffrage discussion in Providence Friday night. Each of the disputants delivered three speeches of twenty minutes, and seemed to divide the sympathies of the audience. The greatest interest was manifested.

—At a convention of delegates from the three Agricultural Societies in Waldo county, held at Brooks on Saturday, Mr. John W Lang, of Brooks, was elected member of the Board of Agriculture from Waldo county for the ensuing year.

BUSINESS CHANGES. Mr. L. W Atkins having dissolved partnership with Mr Stern, will soon open a stock of furnishing and fancy goods at 48 Main street.

Messrs. J F Parkhurst and W. J. Webb have formed a partnership for the wholesale saddlery hardware, carriage-trimmings and trunk business

FIRE IN GREENFIELD. Our correspondent writes that the store and goods therein, belonging to Mr F A. Stoddard of Greenfield, were destroyed by fire on Friday night last, between 1 and 12 o'clock. Loss about $1,500, insured for $1,000 The fire was doubtless the work of an incendiary, and measures are being taken to ferret him out

THE WEEKLY COURIER, with Supplement, for the current week, contains thirty-eight columns of reading matter—but a small portion of the space being devoted to advertising It is a complete epitome of the news of the week, foreign, domestic, State, and local, has a large amount of interesting miscellany, a capital story, poetry, marine intelligence, market reports, etc, etc etc.

G A R. CONCERT. A most brilliant and varied programme has been arranged for the concert Thursday evening by Gilmore's Band of Boston, assisted by Mrs Granger Dow—The tickets for the course of which this is the initiatory entertainment, have sold very rapidly during the week, but there are still some excellent seats left which may be had by early application at Bugbee & Co's

EAGLE ENGINE CO At a regular meeting of Eagle Engine Company No 3 held in their hall last evening, Mr. James E Gillespie was elected Third Foreman in place of Mr H Q. Norton, resigned on account of removal from the city. Mr Charles Johnson, r, was elected Foreman of the Hose, Fred H. Lovell, Second do, and E H Bean, Third do

—The schooner Sea Foam, of and from this city for Fall River was run into, Saturday night, about midway between Vineyard Haven and Tarpaulin Cove, by an unknown schooner, and lost part of davit and boat, had quarter stove and carried away timber head, but was able to proceed on her way and arrived at Fall River Sunday. The damage to the other schooner is unknown

MAINE CENTRAL RAILROAD If the weather is not stormy Supt. Noyes will commence to narrow the gauge of the Maine Central Railroad between Waterville and Danville Junction on Thursday It will probably take two, and perhaps three days to get the road ready to run to Portland over the new extension and the first train will go through on Monday next Some three miles of the extension are not fully gravelled, but will doubtless will be finished this week

SHAY'S QUINCUPLEXAL This company opened in Norombega Hall last evening before a fair sized audience, to whom the entertainment furnished abundance of amusement, judging by the frequent applause The orchestral music was excellent, the different performances well received, and the company will doubtless receive a much larger patronage this evening, when there will be a change of programme

PENOBSCOT POULTRY SOCIETY The first exhibition of the Penobscot Poultry Society, opens to-day in City Hall. This will be the first exclusive poultry show that has ever been held in this State, and with the increased attention now given to the rearing of different classes of poultry, we feel quite sure the exhibition and the attendance will both be good. The number of entries already made is large, and embraces fowls, singing birds, rabbits, etc., from nearly every part of the State.

MASONIC INSTALLATION. At the Annual Communication of Archon Lodge, F & A Masons, of East Dixmont, the following officers were elected for the current year, and were publicly installed on Thursday evening last by P. M. S. L Chadbourne—Geo. Sweetsir, W. M ; [...], S. W ; Amos W. Knowlton, J. W., W. B. Ferguson, Treas., Amos Whitney, Sec'y; Geo. [...] Thurlough, S. D ; Benj. R. Whitney, J. D.; Alonzo Tasker, S. STETSON HIGH SCHOOL. Our correspondent writes [...] [illegible] Wednesday and Thursday a public examination was held, and Thursday evening an entertainment was given by the students, consisting of prize declamations by the gentlemen and readings by the ladies, tableaux, etc. The upper room in the school building was crowded with spectators who paid the best attention The first prize for declaiming was given to Charles P Rice, second to Edmund Davis, third to Edwin M Allen. For excellence in reading the first prize was awarded to Annie A Cloudman, second to Minnie E Pulsifer, third to Carrie A Tripp Miss Cora A. Dutton received the prize for best map drawing The school has received a thousand dollars from the State, and a thousand from the town, which together with the school building—one of the best of the kind in the country—and the earnest influence of friends, ought to make it it one of the most flourishing high schools

"OLD AND NEW." R. S Prescott, Esq, of this city has in his possession a private journal kept by Joseph Leavitt, Esq, from the time of his removal to this city, to a few months before his death, which occurred in 1820. Mr Leavitt was Town Clerk of Bangor for many years, and his record of passing events in his time is exceedingly interesting. He built the first ship ever constructed at this port and was largely interested in trade He owned a brick-yard, in which in the year 1812 were made the bricks used in the building on Washington street, now occupied for offices by the E & N A. Railway Company As late as the year of his death, the country between here and Houlton was an unbroken wilderness, and the mail went there but once a month, a man taking it on horseback to Oldtown and Milford, thence to Mattawamkeag Point in a batteau, and thence to Houlton on his shoulders The mail matter was put into one end of the bag and in the other end was placed a runlet or small wooden cask, corked tight, so as to float the mail if it chanced to be spilled into the river. Now the mails run daily to Houlton via E. & N. A Railway, in nine hours—a fact that would have seemed incredible in the days the old building referred to above was in course of construction. We see by Mr. Leavitt's diary that in January, 1814, the citizens of Bangor contributed $80 in money for the relief of the sufferers by the great fire in Portsmouth, which was doubtless regarded as great a calamity in those days as the Chicago fire is now

BANGOR POLICE COURT.
BEFORE JUDGE CLARK.

Monday, Nov. 6th. Saturday and Sunday were lively days with those habituated to getting on their beer, and the Court had a good forenoon's work Wm Belger, Sampson Murphy and Thomas Dolan, who had a set-to with policeman Farmer on Broad-st. Saturday, were arraigned for drunkenness and assault and battery upon that officer. Belger and Murphy pleaded guilty, but Dolan denied having anything to do with the matter. Each was bound over to appear at the next criminal term of the Supreme Judicial Court, with bail fixed at $300, and each was also fined $5 and costs for drunkenness. Being unable to furnish sureties for their appearance, they were committed to await trial

James Harrington, Joseph Frost and Thos. O'Loughlin were each requested to come down with three dollars and costs of prosecution, for being on a little spree

John B Taylor vs Eli Hoskins.

Action on due bill for $75, on which $50 had been paid. Defense, that the paper was given for framing a building for defendant, which work was done in a bungling and unworkmanlike manner, to the damage of def't more than the balance due. The due bill was given after the work was done, and the jury gave a verdict to plaintiff of $21 70

—OF A—
Completed Road!
A GREAT
INTERNATIONAL THOROUGHFARE.
NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY
is now completed and regular trains running to St. John N B (202 miles from Bangor), and to Shediac, (310 miles from Bangor)
This great Trunk Line is the ONLY Railroad connecting the Maritime Provinces (population ONE MILLION) with the U S and Canada, and all the land travel, mails and freight, between these great sections of the continent, passes over this grand thoroughfare
On completion (in July next) of some 50 miles of railway between Amherst and Truro Nova Scotia, a continuous line of Railroad will be formed to HALIFAX and as 700 miles of Ocean travel can then be avoided and some 36 hours time saved in going to and coming from Europe by railroad to or from HALIFAX instead of by steamer all the way from and to New York, a large through business in passengers mails and freight is sure, then, to still further increase the revenues of the E & N. A. RAILWAY
The business of the Road in Maine from Bangor to Mattawamkeag (58 miles) during the two years this part has been in operation has been larger than ever before enjoyed by any new R R in Maine, the nett earnings being sufficient to pay the interest on nearly two and one half millions of dollars, and now that the remainder in Maine is completed (56 miles from Mattawamkeag to the State line at Vanceboro) and the entire line opened through to St John and connected with Houlton Woodstock, Fredericton St Andrews Calais Shediac, &c by tributary lines of R R already built, and by Steamers daily from Shediac with Prince Edward's Island the business bids fair to far exceed the most sanguine anticipations of the management Enormous Tanneries Saw Mills, &c, along this R R in Maine, from Mattawamkeag to Vanceboro', furnish a large freight business to and from Bangor, while the traffic of all kinds with the prosperous Aroostook County, (population 25 000,) constitutes a large item of revenue
To complete the E & N A Railway in Maine the Company issued its Bonds to the amount of Two Million Dollars, secured by a
FIRST & ONLY MORTGAGE
ON ITS ENTIRE ROAD AND PROPERTY FROM WINN TO VANCEBORO (besides a Second Mortgage on the entire road and equipments from Bangor to Winn 56 miles This portion cost some $2 300 0 0 and the only lien there on is a mortgage to the city of Bangor for $1 000 000) —and in addition thereto, by a FIRST AND ONLY MORTGAGE on 800,000 ACRES of timber and farming lands granted to the Company by the State More than half a million acres of this munificent grant are in Aroostook County the most fertile portion of the State, and are of great value as farming lands in addition to their value for the timber and mineral resources thereof Competent parties considering that the proceeds from these lands will be more than sufficient to pay all the Bonds of the Company long before maturity
The Bonds are for $1000 each, due March 1, 1899, bear interest at Six Per Cent, Per Annum,
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN,
Free from U. S. Taxation.
Coupons payable March 1 and September 1 in New York Bonds registered if desired Coupons made payable (£6 each) in London England, if preferred
SINKING FUND—All proceeds of sales of land and [...] of timber and other products therefrom, are by the Trustees to be invested in these Bonds if they can be bought at par or less otherwise in United States State or Municipal Securities And on July 1, 1879 and annually thereafter until these Bonds become due or are all paid the E & N A Railway Co is bound to pay to the Trustees a sum of money equal to one per cent of the amount of Bonds outstanding Such amounts, and all interest received on securities belonging to the SINKING FUND are to be invested as above stated, and these accumulations are solely for the purpose of additionally providing for the redemption of these Bonds The Sinking Fund constitutes a third great element of security and strength, and adds to the safety of these Bonds
The Trustees are Hon HANNIBAL HAMLIN of Bangor, Me and J EDGAR THOMSON, Esq of Philadelphia Pa
The Trustees are authorized to receive the Bonds at Par and Accrued Interest in payment for any of the lands at their appraised value
Only a limited portion of the entire issue now remains to be sold By far the larger part has already been taken by Savings Banks holders of Trust Funds and parties purchasing for permanent investment The remarkably successful business of the Road and the certainty of its increase, added to the unusually ample security of these Bonds (400 acres of timber and Farm lands to each Bond BESIDES the mortgage on the Railway and appurtenances) makes them deservedly popular with the most careful investors
Large amounts of U S Bonds are being exchanged for these securities, the holders realizing 19 to 26 per Cent. difference in Cash besides continuing to receive the same interest, (6 per cent. gold) as on U S 5-20 Bonds.
These very desirable securities for sale at
90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY
U S Bonds and all marketable securities received at highest market price in exchange for these Bonds, and can be sent by Express and these returned by Express, free of expense to the purchaser
Pamphlets giving further particulars concerning the connections and business, with Maps, showing the location and lands of this road, sent free on application to

BACKBONE.

Where'er we see a fellow-mortal
With all the soul and fearless virtues,
Plodding on the steps of duties,
Walking in the paths of honor,
Bow to him no matter
Well dressed, unmannered head,
Bow to him no matter
Willing to be clown or lout
Walk yourself with firmest bearing,
Keep your moral shoulders back.
Show your spine has nerve and marrow—
Just the things which his must lack.

A stronger word
Was never heard
In verse and tome
Than this—backbone.

When you see a politician
Crawling through contracted holes,
Begging for some fat position,
Cringing, fawning to the polls,
Walking, sterling manhood in him,
Nothing stable, broad or stand,
Bending at black or ballast,
To be rooted all around;
Walk yourself with firmer bearing,
Keep your moral shoulders back,
Show your spine has nerve and marrow—
Just the things which his must lack.

A stronger word
Was never heard
In verse and tome
Than this—backbone.

A modest song and plainly told—
The text is worth a mine of gold;
Each verse men most sensibly lick
A noble sentence in the back.

Grand Rapids Eagle.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.

What a grievous thing it is to have a holiday! A little allotment of time all your own, upon which you need pay duty to no man living, and within the compass of which, if you be a scholar, none can harass you about the date of the Hegira, or "exact political significance" of the Licinian Rogations, or run shock fair upon you, if you be a man of business, from warning telegrams respecting the fall of Turkish consols, or the unsatisfactory depression of the Cloth Hall Plantations Railway Company. There is no more cruel thing who does not appreciate such a task-free day, from the fourth-form boy who overeats himself at Warwick or Kenilworth on the Lady yearly holiday, dumped only by the Bonnard-collection that work begins again next Tuesday, down to the doctor's prescription of "some change of scene" by making Rome or Saratoga as like London as possible for two months every year.

Somewhat after this fashion (had I felt inclined) might have soliloquized, as I sat seated upon the second town of Heidelberg from the terrace of the "Molken-Kur," a wooden auberge, perched upon a projecting bluff, in which a few soi-disant invalids play at curing themselves by eating the greatest possible amount of curds and whey. All, certainly, the scene before me deserved more than a passing glance. Above rose the old, strong, stone Königstuhl, with its waving woods, upon which the fading light lingered lovingly; all around lay the wide landscape, between which, like a thread of gold, glittered the winding stream of the Neckar immediately below me; by the narrow, crooked tall, grim houses of the quaint old town. Above all, in the red towers of the castle stood out in the glory of sunset like pillars of fire; and far out in the plain below, sneaking with its shining curves the direction of the last green level, I could just discern the first smooth flow of the parent Rhine.

But at this moment my reflections are not in a sufficiently unromantic way by the sight of a huge steeple-crowned hat, which, driven by the wind, ricochets off my head, and is just rolling over the brow of the hill, when I spring forward and clutch it. I turn to look for the owner. I find myself face to face with a quiet, pleasant-looking old gentleman, in frilled shirt and black stockings, the very image of the Glass Dwarf in William Hoff's "Kaltes Herz," evidently a man of some note by the respect with which all the villagers make way for him.

"Many thanks, mein Herr," says the old man, as I restored his cream hat. "I'm not quite so supple now as I was when I took the prize at the Freyberg Volksfest, forty-three years ago, before I even thought of becoming a professor. It's only you English who can keep up your training forever."

"How did you guess that I was an Englishman?" asked I, somewhat surprised; for, indeed, with a beard like a Pasha's and a face bronzed by the sun of Egypt and Syria, my appearance is anything but Anglo-Saxon.

"Nobody but an Englishman would have thought that as you did." answered the professor, with a little chuckling laugh; "it's true to the nature to jump up and run after anything that passes. Ah, if you English could only employ your irrepressible energies in the cause of science, what might you not achieve! But no; you do not care to learn." It is but justice to believe. Herr Professor, that the nation which produced Bacon and Newton has still some reverence for science."

"They were mighty men," replies the old gentleman, with a reverential bend of its gray head; "but I am speaking of the nation at large, not of a few exceptional celebrities. As I continued." A fine life they led me when first I began to practice medicine down yonder in Swabia. The first thing in the morning, kling! kling! at my door. Then it is the Englishman who has broken his leg trying to climb the Teufelshorn, which no one ever succeeded yet." I set the Herr Englander's leg and leave him pretty comfortable. Not half an hour later kling! kling! again. 'What is it?' 'An Englishman who has been half drowned in swimming across the Elbe against the current for a wager. I roll the Herr Englander in warm blankets and bring him round. Before I have well settled in my chair again, kling! kling! once more. 'Mein Gott! what's the matter?' 'An Englishman who has tried to run twelve miles within the hour, because some one said he couldn't,—and has broken down under the strain.' Mein Herr, I am sorry to have to say it, but your countrymen are equally devoid of fear and of reason. There is not one man in England whom I can truly reverence, and his name is Herr Carlyle!"

"Mr. Carlyle, why, he's an old friend of mine! I saw him the last time I was in England. I am glad you admire him."

"Did I, mein Herr? did you really?" says the old man, with unfeigned interest. "Tell me all about him, I beseech you; he is a great man—worthy to have been born a German!"

And for nearly twenty minutes we sit in judgment upon the biographies of Frederick the Great, all the strokes of seven booming from the town below warn the professor that it is time to be going home.

"You must come with me, mein Herr," says he rising from his seat; "no excuses, I beg of you. It shall never be said that Justus Weissenbart met with a friend of the Herr Carlyle without making him welcome; and, besides, I've got something to show you which I think will interest you."

The old man's hearty manner was not to be resisted, and a quarter of an hour later I stood before the door of a tall, grim-looking stone house at the corner of the Market-Platz, the curiously-carved front of which showed that it had seen more than one century. But if its outside was stern and unpromising, its inside was comfortable in the highest degree; and as I thought when I found myself seated over a substantial German supper in the professor's little snuggery, and heard the old man's cheery voice bidding me "fall to and spare nothing."

While eating, I found time to glance round the room, which (save for its antique furniture and heavy cross-beams of dark oak) differed but little from the countless other laboratories that I had seen in various towns of southern Germany, but one object arrested my attention—a human skeleton planted upright in a corner, wearing a pistol menacingly with its deathless hand. The professor noticed the direction of my eyes, and smiled, a trifle of skill against strength. He, the man of brute force, attempted to scare me, the man of science—and he was caught in his own trap. Fill your glass, and let us drink to the great scientific movement which has made Europe the first quarter of the world, and Germany the first country in Europe!"

After a pause, he resumed:

"Well, I can't resist you," said I to the robber, assuming a look of terror such as I had not worn since I went up for my first examination as a candidate at Jesus. "I'll give you all I have, and when you leave taken it, I hope you'll be satisfied and do me no further injury.

"Oh, I'll be satisfied when I touch the money, never fear, old boy," answered he with a laugh. "Come, out with it, quick."

"It's in that bureau yonder," replied I, throwing a key on the table; "help yourself."

I need not tell you mein Herr, that in the whole bureau there was not a single pfennig, but he went toward it to unlock it, which was all I wanted.

"Ah, you wanted to get a chance of sticking him from behind, I suppose?" said I, secretly marveling at the strategic ability of this pacific man of letters.

"Mein lieber Herr," returned the professor, with an air of grand contempt, suggestive of Socrates "setting down" Protagoras, "science does not fight with such coarse material as these. I have told you that I regarded this man in the light of an experiment, and I acted accordingly. If you wish to know what was my real object in sending him to the bureau, step forward and press your heel upon that little knot in the floor."

I obeyed, and was not a little startled when a good square yard of the flooring immediately before me gave way with a loud, whirring noise, disclosing a black chasm of unknown depth, from which arose the hoarse gurgle of running water.

"Why you don't mean to say—" faltered I, glancing from the ghastly abyss below to the benevolent face of the savant, which looked milder and more benevolent than ever.

"Precisely so," answered the professor, with a genial smile, and rubbing his little fat hands gleefully. "That's the Neckar which you hear grumbling down yonder; but there was a good yard of dry pavement beside it for him to fall upon, and it sufficed. Unhappily, the fall necessarily occasioned certain injuries to his anatomical structure, which, however, my humble knowledge of surgery has, as you see, enabled me to repair." (And he pointed to the pistol-bearing skeleton with a complacent air.) "Why do you look so shocked, my friend? It was a fair trial of skill against strength. He, the man of brute force, attempted to scare me, the man of science—and he was caught in his own trap. Fill your glass, and let us drink to the great scientific movement which has made Europe the first quarter of the world, and Germany the first country in Europe!"

I filled my glass, though I did not drink; but made some excuse, and gladly left the house.

OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the forty-second Congress.

Treaty between the United States and Great Britain, Claims, Fisheries, Navigation of the St. Lawrence, &c., American Lumber on the river St. John, boundary. Concluded May 8, 1871; ratifications exchanged, June 17, 1871; proclaimed July 4, 1871.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Treaty between the United States of America and Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, concerning the settlement of all causes of difference between the two countries, was concluded and signed by Plenipotentiaries of the respective Governments on the eighth day of May last; which Treaty is, word for word, as follows:

The United States of America and Her Britannic Majesty, being desirous to provide for an amicable settlement of all causes of difference between the two countries, have for that purpose appointed their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say: The President of the United States has appointed, on the part of the United States, as Commissioners in a Joint High Commission and Plenipotentiaries, Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State; Robert Cumming Schenck, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Great Britain; Samuel Nelson, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; Ebenezer Rockwood Hoar, of Massachusetts; and George Henry Williams, of Oregon; and Her Britannic Majesty, on her part, has appointed as her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries, the Right Honorable George Frederick Samuel, Earl de Grey and Earl of Ripon, Viscount Goderich, Baron Grantham, a Baronet, a Peer of the United Kingd om, Lord President of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, etc., etc.; the Right Honorable Sir Stafford Henry Northcote, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, a Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, etc., etc.; Sir Edward Thornton, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America; Sir John Alexander Macdonald, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, a Member of Her Majesty's Privy Council and Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Majesty's Dominion of Canada; and Montague Bernard, Esquire, Chichele Professor of International Law in the University of Oxford.

And the said Plenipotentiaries, after having exchanged their full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

Whereas differences have arisen between the Government of the United States and the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, and still exist, growing out of the acts of vessels which have given rise to the claims generically known as the "Alabama claims."

And whereas Her Britannic Majesty has authorized her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries to express, in a friendly spirit, the regret felt by Her Majesty's Government at the escape, under whatever circumstances, of the Alabama and other vessels from British ports, and for the depredations committed by those vessels:

Now, in order to remove and adjust all complaints and claims on the part of the United States, and to provide for the speedy settlement of such claims, which are not admitted by Her Britannic Majesty's Government, the High Contracting Parties agree that all the said claims, growing out of acts committed by the aforesaid vessels and generically known as the "Alabama claims," shall be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration to be composed of five Arbitrators, to be appointed in the following manner, that is to say: One shall be named by the President of the United States, one shall be named by Her Britannic Majesty; His Majesty the King of Italy shall be requested to name one; the President of the Swiss Confederation shall be requested to name one; and His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil shall be requested to name one.

In case of the death, absence, or incapacity to act of any or either of the said Arbitrators, or in the event of either of the said Arbitrators omitting or declining or ceasing to act as such, the President of the United States, or Her Britannic Majesty, or His Majesty the King of Italy, or the President of the Swiss Confederation, or His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, as the case may be, may forthwith name another person to act as Arbitrator in the place and stead of the Arbitrator originally named by such respective Power.

And in case within two months after receipt of the request from either of the High Contracting Parties of His Majesty the King of Italy, or the President of the Swiss Confederation, or His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, to name an Arbitrator either to fill the original appointment or in the place of one who may have died or become incapacitated, or who may omit, decline, or from any cause cease to act as such Arbitrator, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway shall be requested to name one or more persons, as the case may be, to act as such Arbitrator or Arbitrators.

ARTICLE II.

The Arbitrators shall meet at Geneva, in Switzerland, at the earliest convenient day after they shall have been named, and shall proceed impartially and carefully to examine and decide all questions that shall be laid before them on the part of the Governments of the United States and Her Britannic Majesty respectively. All questions considered by the Tribunal, including the final award, shall be decided by a majority of all the Arbitrators.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall also name one person to attend the Tribunal as its agent to represent it generally in all matters connected with the arbitration.

ARTICLE III.

The written or printed case of each of the two Parties, accompanied by the documents, the official correspondence, and other evidence on which each relies, shall be delivered in duplicate to each of the Arbitrators and to the agent of the other Party as soon as may be after the organization of the Tribunal, but within a period not exceeding six months from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of this Treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

Within four months after the delivery on both sides of the written or printed case, either Party may, in like manner, deliver in duplicate to each of the said Arbitrators and to the agent of the other Party, a counter case and additional documents, or correspondence, or evidence, in reply to the statements, correspondence, and evidence so presented by the other Party.

The Arbitrators may, however, extend the time for delivering such counter case, documents, correspondence, or evidence, when, in their judgment, it becomes necessary, in consequence of the distance of the place from which the evidence to be presented is to be procured.

If in the case submitted to the Arbitrators either Party shall have specified or alluded to any report or document in its own exclusive possession without annexing a copy, such Party shall be bound, if the other Party thinks proper to apply for it, to furnish that Party with a copy thereof; and either Party may call upon the other, through the Arbitrators, to produce the originals or certified copies of any papers adduced as evidence, giving in each instance such reasonable notice as the Arbitrators may require.

ARTICLE V.

It shall be the duty of the agent of each Party, within two months after the expiration of the time limited for the delivery of the counter case on behalf of each to deliver in duplicate to each of the said Arbitrators and to the agent of the other Party a written or printed argument showing the points and referring to the evidence upon which his Government relies; and the Arbitrators may, if they desire further elucidation with regard to any point, require a written or printed statement or argument, or oral argument by counsel upon it; but in such case the other Party shall be entitled to reply either orally or in writing, as the case may be.

ARTICLE VI.

In deciding the matters submitted to the Arbitrators, they shall be governed by the following three rules, which are agreed upon by the High Contracting Parties as rules to be taken as applicable to the case, and for their decision as other rules not inconsistent therewith as the Arbitrators shall determine to have been applicable to the case.

RULES.

A neutral Government is bound—

First, to use due diligence to prevent the fitting out, arming, or equipping, within its jurisdiction, of any vessel which it has reasonable ground to believe is intended to cruise or to carry on war against a Power with which it is at peace; and also to use like diligence to prevent the departure from its jurisdiction of any vessel intended to cruise or carry on war as above, such vessel having been specially adapted, in whole or in part, within such jurisdiction, to warlike use.

Secondly, not to permit or suffer either belligerent to make use of its ports or waters as the base of naval operations against the other, or for the purpose of the renewal or augmentation of military supplies or arms, or the recruitment of men.

Thirdly, to exercise due diligence in its own ports and waters, and, as to all persons within its jurisdiction, to prevent any violation of the foregoing obligations and duties.

Her Britann c Majesty has commanded Her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries to declare that Her Majesty's Government cannot assent to the foregoing rules as a statement of principles of International Law which were in force at the time when the claims mentioned in article I arose, but that Her Majesty's Government, in order to evince its desire of strengthening the friendly relations between the two countries and of making satisfactory provision for the future, agrees that in deciding the questions between the two countries arising out of those claims, the Arbitrators should assume that Her Majesty's Government had undertaken to act upon the principles set forth in these rules.

And the High Contracting Parties agree to observe these rules as between themselves in future, and to bring them to the knowledge of other maritime Powers, and to invite them to accede to them.

ARTICLE VII.

The decision of the Tribunal shall, if possible, be made within three months from the close of the argument on both sides.

It shall be made in writing and dated, and shall be signed by the Arbitrators who may assent to it.

The said Tribunal shall first determine as to each vessel separately whether Great Britain has, by any act or omission, failed to fulfil any of the duties set forth in the foregoing three rules, or recognized by the principles of International Law not inconsistent with such rules, and shall certify such fact as to each of the said vessels. In case the Tribunal find that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty or duties so aforesaid, it may, if it think proper, proceed to award a sum in gross to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for all the claims referred to it; and in such case the gross sum so awarded shall be paid in coin by the Government of Great Britain to the Government of the United States, at Washington, within twelve months after the date of the award.

The award shall be in duplicate, one copy whereof shall be delivered to the agent of the United States for his Government, and the other copy shall be delivered to the agent of Great Britain for his Government.

ARTICLE VIII.

Each Government shall pay its own agent and provide for the proper remuneration of the counsel employed by it and of the Arbitrator appointed by it, and for the expenses of preparing and submitting its case to the Tribunal. All other expenses connected with the arbitration shall be defrayed by the two Governments in equal moieties.

ARTICLE IX.

The Arbitrators shall keep an accurate record of their proceedings, and may appoint and employ the necessary officers to assist them.

ARTICLE X.

In case the Tribunal finds that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty or duties as aforesaid, and does not award a sum in gross, the High Contracting Parties agree that a Board of Assessors shall be appointed to ascertain and determine what claims are valid, and what amount or amounts shall be paid by Great Britain to the United States on account of the liability arising from such failure, as to each vessel to which the Board shall extend their investigations. The Board shall consist of three members, and in case of the death, absence, or incapacity to act of any member, such vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original appointment was made.

As soon as possible after such nominations the Board of Assessors shall be organized in Washington, with power to hold their sittings there, or in New York, or in Boston. The members thereof shall severally subscribe a solemn declaration that they will impartially and carefully examine and decide, to the best of their judgment and according to justice and equity, all matters submitted to them, and shall forthwith proceed, under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe, to the investigation of the claims which shall be presented to them by the Government of the United States, and shall examine and decide upon them in such order and manner as they may think proper, on such evidence or information only as shall be furnished by or on behalf of the Governments of the United States and of Great Britain, respectively. They shall be bound to hear on each separate claim, if required, one person on behalf of each Government, as counsel or agent. A majority of the Assessors in each case shall be sufficient for a decision.

The decision of the Assessors shall be given upon each claim in writing, and shall be signed by them respectively and dated.

Every claim shall be presented to the Assessors within six months from the day of their first meeting, but they may, for good cause shown, extend the time for the presentation of any claim to a further period not exceeding three months.

The Assessors shall report to each Government at or before the expiration of one year from the date of their first meeting the amount of the claims decided by them up to the date of such report; but if other claims then remain undecided, they shall make a further report at or before the expiration of two years from the date of such first meeting; and in case any claims remain undetermined at that time, they shall make a final report within a further period of six months.

The report or reports shall be made in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be delivered to the Secretary of State of the United States, and one copy thereof to the Representative of Her Britannic Majesty at Washington.

All sums of money which may be awarded under this Article shall be payable at Washington, in coin, within twelve months after the delivery of each report.

The Board of Assessors may employ such clerks as they shall think necessary.

The expenses of the Board of Assessors shall be borne equally by the two Governments, and paid from time to time, as may be found expedient, on the production of accounts certified by the Board. The remuneration of the Assessors shall also be paid by the two Governments in equal moieties in a similar manner.

ARTICLE XI.

A Board of Assessors shall be constituted as follows: One member thereof shall be named by the President of the United States, one member thereof shall be named by Her Britannic Majesty; and one member thereof shall be named by the Representative at Washington of His Majesty the King of Italy; and in case of a vacancy happening from any cause, it shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

As soon as possible after such nominations the Board of Assessors shall be organized in Washington, with power to hold their sittings there, or in New York, or in Boston. The members thereof shall severally subscribe a solemn declaration that they will impartially and carefully examine and decide, to the best of their judgment and according to justice and equity, all matters submitted to them, and shall forthwith proceed, under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe, to the investigation of the claims which shall be presented to them by the Government of the United States, and shall examine and decide upon them in such order and manner as they may think proper, on such evidence or information only as shall be furnished by or on behalf of the Governments of the United States and of Great Britain, respectively. They shall be bound to hear on each separate claim, if required, one person on behalf of each Government, as counsel or agent. A majority of the Assessors in each case shall be sufficient for a decision.

The decision of the Assessors shall be given upon each claim in writing, and shall be signed by them respectively and dated.

Every claim shall be presented to the Assessors within six months from the day of their first meeting, but they may, for good cause shown, extend the time for the presentation of any claim to a further period not exceeding three months.

The Assessors shall report to each Government at or before the expiration of one year from the date of their first meeting the amount of the claims decided by them up to the date of such report; but if other claims then remain undecided, they shall make a further report at or before the expiration of two years from the date of such first meeting; and in case any claims remain undetermined at that time, they shall make a final report within a further period of six months.

The report or reports shall be made in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be delivered to the Secretary of State of the United States, and one copy thereof to the Representative of Her Britannic Majesty at Washington.

All sums of money which may be awarded under this Article shall be payable at Washington, in coin, within twelve months after the delivery of each report.

The Board of Assessors may employ such clerks as they shall think necessary.

The expenses of the Board of Assessors shall be borne equally by the two Governments, and paid from time to time, as may be found expedient, on the production of accounts certified by the Board. The remuneration of the Assessors shall also be paid by the two Governments in equal moieties in a similar manner.

75,000 Acres OF GOOD Timber Land For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River, in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York.

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, Pine and a little Cedar. The purchasers own two large tannories, located on the aforesaid river, which will consume the hemlock bark, thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality and heavy. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access, being from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R. R. and Black River Canal, which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract, is a large stream and empties into Black River, and Canal boats run into Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers pass. Being a never failing unlimited water power, two mills say right in the Canal and at the Depot, to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands.

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted.
